MOTION TO ENLARGE ISSUES

THE SETTLEMENT GROUP,¹ by its attorney, respectfully moves to enlarge the issues to be tried in the captioned proceeding to include an issue of misrepresentation and lack of candor by Telephone and Data Systems, Inc. (TDS) concerning its relationship to UTELCO, Inc. during the application proceedings prior to issuance of the Hearing Designation Order² in this case. In support thereof, the Settlement Group respectfully shows:

¹ Century Cellunet, Inc., Contel Cellular, Inc., Coon Valley Farmers Telephone Company, Inc., Farmers Telephone Company, Hillsboro Telephone Company, LaValle Telephone Cooperative, Monroe County Telephone Company, Mount Horeb Telephone Company, North-West Cellular, Inc., Richland-Grant Telephone Cooperative, Inc., Vernon Telephone Cooperative and Viroqua Telephone Company.

² Memorandum Opinion and Order and Hearing Designation Order, CC Docket No. 94-11, FCC 94-29, adopted and released February 1, 1994, reported at 9 FCC Rcd 938 (FCC 1994), hereinafter cited as the "HDO".

This motion is based upon facts disclosed by TDS for the first time in documents produced on July 8, 1994, to undersigned counsel for the Settlement Group. The TDS document production on that date was to comply in part with the Common Carrier Bureau's request for production of documents served on April 22, 1994, and the subsequent agreement of the parties dated May 27, 1994 with respect to such production request. This motion is thus timely filed pursuant to §1.229(b)(3) of the Commission's rules.

Included in the documents produced for the first time on July 8, 1994 was a series of internal TDS manuals, i.e., the TDS "1987 Personnel Directory" (Bates stamped TDS03007-TDS03076); the TDS "1988 Personnel Directory" (Bates stamped TDS02934-TDS03006); the TDS "1989 Personnel Directory" (Bates stamped TDS02783-TDS02933); and the 1990 Personnel Directory" (Bates stamped TDS03077-TDS03265). Pertinent excerpts from these internal TDS directories are attached hereinafter from Tab A through Tab D, respectively.

These internal TDS directories contain listings of entities which are said to be "TDS COMPANIES". Using the 1990 directory as an example,³ there is a "TDS Company Master List," first in alphabetical order and then in numerical order. In the alphabetical list, "UTELCO, Inc." (state abbreviation "WI") is listed on page 9 (Bates #TDS03084) with code 271, and UTELCO, Inc. is listed again in the numerical sequence on page 12 (Bates #TDS03087). In the numerical list the number 271 is explained as the "Company Number", i.e., the TDS "Company Number". The "Master List" also has a list of facsimile numbers for the included companies, again with a listing for UTELCO, Inc. on page 17 (Bates #TDS03092). These numbers are referred to in the directory as "TDS facsimile numbers". (Id.). (Emphasis added).

Another section of the directories contains a listing of entities said to be "TDS Operating Telephone Companies". Again using 1990 as an example, UTELCO, Inc., with an address of 827 16th Avenue, P. O. Box 88, Monroe, Wisconsin 53566, is listed beginning on page 85 (Bates #TDS03160); and information concerning that company extends to page 87 (Bates #TDS03162).

Finally, there is a section for "TDS Officers & Directors". In that section there is again a listing for "UTELCO, Inc." on pages 187-188 (Bates ##TDS03261-TDS03262), including listings for Robert A. Kirschner, Chairman of the Board & Director; Charles D. Metcalf, President & Director; David W. Esser, Vice President & Director; Thomas P. Larson, Treasurer & Director; Charles J. Schroeder, Secretary & Director; Theresa A. Engen, Assistant Secretary; Robert L. Ableman, Director; and Robert H. Rieder, Director. As noted earlier, the directory expressly holds these persons out to be TDS "Officers & Directors".

In short, these internal documents used by TDS in its day-to-day operations unambiguously portray UTELCO, Inc. from 1987 through 1990 essentially as just another TDS subsidiary telephone company. Stated another way, they portray UTELCO, Inc. in substance as a company under TDS' dominion and control.

This picture contrasts sharply with TDS' repeated representations to the Commission in this case concerning the relationship between TDS and UTELCO between 1989 and 1991. Indeed, the relationship of TDS to UTELCO in March 1989, when the lottery was held for the Wisconsin 8 cellular licenses, was at the core of the initial protest of the license grant to TDS on July 27, 1989.

The Settlement Group knew from the beginning, and it was so represented in the Petition to Deny, that TDS owned 49% of UTELCO⁴ and had an option to acquire the remaining 51%. On this basis the Group argued that TDS' ownership interest in UTELCO gave TDS a prohibited cross-ownership interest in the Group's various applications, because UTELCO had joined in the settlement while TDS effectively withdrew at the eleventh hour.

In the initial order in this case,⁵ the Mobile Services Division denied the protest on the ground that UTELCO's participation in the settlement group did not create an "ownership interest" within the meaning of the cross-ownership prohibition. In seeking reconsideration of this ruling, the Group argued, inter alia, that the settlement agreement gave UTELCO a "chance in action" which constituted the requisite "ownership interest" under the rules.

Importantly, also, the Group went on to argue in the alternative that the FCC should pierce the corporate veil by reason of TDS' ownership in UTELCO, and should deem TDS and UTELCO a joint enterprise for purposes of the cumulative lottery chances provision of the rules. The Group also protested MDS's failure to pierce the corporate veil for purposes of finding that TDS should have disclosed UTELCO's participation in the settlement group under §1.65 of the rules.

In opposition, TDS stated that "if any entity did possess a 'chance in action' with respect to the applications of Century and the other settlement group members, it would be non-applicant UTELCO and not UTELCO's minority stockholder, TDS." (TDS Opposition to Petition for Reconsideration, December 29, 1989, pp. 4-5). (Emphasis added). Later on, in opposing the Group's "joint enterprise" argument for purposes of assigning cumulative lottery chances, TDS also stated that "since UTELCO did not file an application, its relationship to TDS is not properly before the FCC." (TDS Opposition, p. 9 & n. 3).

On reconsideration the Common Carrier Bureau expressly found that UTELCO's participation in the settlement group violated the cross-ownership prohibited, but held that it would be "inequitable" to penalize TDS for the violation.⁶ Specifically, the Bureau held that "[s]hort of withdrawing its own application, TDS could do nothing more than object to UTELCO's entry into the partial settlement group" (id.), and that "it was not within TDS's control to prohibit UTELCO from joining the settlement group". Id. at ¶8. (Emphasis added). Additionally, in declining to find a §1.65 violation, the Bureau held that "TDS is not the controlling party in UTELCO which entered into the settlement agreement" and, hence, that "TDS had no obligation to inform the Commission of the settlement." Id. at ¶10. (Emphasis added).

These findings of fact by the Bureau were the basis for much of the debate before the Commission in the review proceedings. The Settlement Group sought review citing as an issue, inter alia, "whether the [Bureau] correctly found that 'TDS is not the controlling party in UTELCO' and, hence, did not violate Section 1.65 of the rules by failing to disclose the settlement activities of its subsidiary UTELCO." (Application for Review, February 15, 1991, at pp. 5-6).

Additionally, TDS filed its own "Contingent Application for Review" in which it represented, inter alia, that "UTELCO ... is a local exchange telephone company in Wisconsin RSA #8 in which TDS holds a 49% interest"; that the issues in the proceeding "arise not as a consequence of the actions of ... TDS, but rather as a result of the actions of ... UTELCO, in which TDS holds a minority interest"; and that "it is not ... fair or reasonable to hold an applicant responsible for a settlement agreement reached by a non-applicant company, including one in which the applicant may have a minority ownership issue". (TDS Contingent Application for Review, February 15, 1991, at pages 2, 8). (Emphasis added).

Rather than acknowledge that the Bureau had erred in its findings that TDS could not control UTELCO's actions, TDS instead perpetuated this error by continuing to profess in its pleadings that TDS was merely a minority owner of UTELCO. In turn, that evidently erroneous finding was expressly affirmed by the Commission in the HDO.⁷ The Commission therefore also expressly relied upon the alleged

"minority owner" status of TDS in UTELCO, and did so to the Commission's detriment.

The special duty of candor and forthrightness by Commission applicants is by now a familiar one:

[T]he Commission must rely heavily on the completeness and accuracy of the submissions made to it, and its applicants in turn have an affirmative duty to inform the Commission of the facts it needs in order to fulfill its statutory mandate. This duty of candor is basic and well known.⁸

At a minimum, in light of the information in the attached directories, it appears that TDS lacked candor in describing its relationship with UTELCO herein; and it similarly appears that TDS may have intentionally misrepresented its relationship as merely a minority stockholder. Therefore, the Settlement Group respectfully requests that an additional issue be designated in this case as follows:

To determine whether Telephone and Data Systems, Inc. misrepresented facts to the Commission, lacked candor in its dealings with the Commission, or attempted to mislead the Commission concerning the relationship between UTELCO, Inc. and Telephone and Data Systems, Inc. from 1989 to the present, and, in this regard, whether Telephone and Data Systems, Inc. has violated Section 1.17 of the Commission's Rules, 47 C.F.R. §1.17.⁹

Upon grant of this motion, the Settlement Group further requests that the Presiding Judge hold a prehearing conference with the parties to determine what further proceedings and revisions to the current schedule are necessary in light of the enlargement.

⁸ RKO General, Inc. v. FCC, 670 F.2d 215, 232 (D.C.Cir. 1981), cert. den. 456 U.S. 927 (1982) (citations omitted).
